

A career with Echterhage Holding

We are always looking for motivated employees, whether as a professional with or without working experience, or as an open-minded and committed trainee, working student, intern or holiday worker.

An attractive working environment in the internationally oriented Echterhage Group, a collegial working atmosphere in a highly motivated team as well as exceptional benefits for trainees, joint degree students, young professionals and professionals – the Echterhage Group is more than an employer. We offer personalities with expert qualification excellent and long-term career prospects.

Join our team!

Visit now the (German) career website of the Echterhage Holding: karriere.e-holding.de